

Discuss Public Arts Master Plan Updates

Keller Public Arts Master Plan & Policy

Purpose of tonight's discussion:

- Provide overview of both documents and highlight the Arts Board's proposed changes
- Gather any initial City Council feedback to take to the Board at their January 2022 meeting

Next steps:

- Final review and recommendation by Board in January
- Consideration by City Council at second meeting in January or first meeting in February

Keller Public Arts Master Plan & Policy

- First Public Arts Master Plan & Policy adopted 2010
- Both documents underwent review and minor revisions recommended by the Arts Board and adopted by City Council in 2016
- The Master Plan documents:
 - Program history
 - Potential short- and long-term projects
 - Potential sites for art
- The Policy outlines:
 - Board composition and responsibilities
 - Arts funding
 - Procedures for donations, loans and deaccessions
 - Project approval and artist selection processes

Keller Public Arts Master Plan – 2022 Updates

- Addition of detailed program history written by Board Chair in both narrative and bulleted form
- Addition of brief Keller Public Arts Society history written by Board Chair
- Revised Vision section focuses on objectives, short- and long-term projects with an emphasis on aligning public art projects with priorities established by City Council

Keller Public Arts Policy – 2022 Updates

- General housekeeping modification to reflect the addition of two alternate positions to the Board
- Purposeful addition of the Board’s interest in pursuing projects that promote diversity

Questions?
Sarah Hensley
817-743-4006