

To Whom it May Concern,

Through this SUP for the Sale of Used Goods we're requesting the ability to sell used books in our bookshop - A House With Books. Since our opening in Feb 2023 we've only sold new books due to the prior zoning of our building, but now with the updates we would really like to offer used and rare books to our customers. We truly feel like this will only diversify our inventory and the customers we're able to draw in. Some bookstore patrons strictly buy used and/or rare books and in order to fulfill our goal of becoming a well-rounded, full service bookstore this shift is vital to our business. We will still continue to sell mainly new books and will not be buying books from customers - the used book inventory will either be donated or sourced directly by our staff.

We don't foresee any negative effects in regard to this expansion of inventory and feel it will only enrich A House With Books' reputation as Keller's local bookshop and help to continue to draw in visitors from around the state. Thank you so much for your support and consideration!
