To: Mayor and City Council

From: Aaron Rector, Interim City Manager

Subject:

Consider a resolution approving a second amendment to the Interlocal Agreement for combined municipal court services for the cities of Colleyville and Keller; and providing an effective date.

Action Requested:

Consider approving the second agreement to the Combined Municipal Court Interlocal Agreement with the City of Colleyville to extend the Interlocal Agreement thru September 30, 2028.

Background:

The Interlocal Agreement for Combined Municipal Court Services for the cities of Keller and Colleyville had an initial six-year term from October 1, 2012, to September 30, 2018. The agreement allows for two extensions of five years each upon mutual consent. A first amendment to the Interlocal Agreement was approved on July 17, 2018, authorizing an extension through September 30, 2023.

Both the cities of Keller and Colleyville have expressed a desire to continue the combined municipal court, finding the joint court arrangement to be beneficial for both cities. This agenda item provides for extension of the Interlocal Agreement for a second five-year term through September 30, 2028.

The City of Colleyville approved the amendment to the Interlocal Agreement of the Combined Municipal Court at their June 18, 2024, Council meeting.
